

SECONDMENT AGREEMENT

BETWEEN: Name of Home Council

AND: Name of Seconding Council

AND: Name of Secondee

The purpose of this agreement is to establish the terms and conditions of the secondment arrangement between the insert Seconding Council name, the insert Home Council name and insert the Secondee's name.

1. Duration of Secondment

Secondee will be seconded to seconding council for the period insert commencement date to insert end date.

2. Assignment during Secondment

Secondee will be assigned to the position of position title at seconding council, location.

Secondee will be responsible for the duties as outlined in the Position Description or as per the project plan which will be provided by the seconding council.

3. Reporting

Secondee will report to supervisor name/position, seconding council for the duration of this secondment. Performance development will be conducted by supervisor name/position in consultation with supervisor at home council. Secondee shall report to the supervisor of the seconding council for contract of secondment only.

4. Terms and Conditions

Secondee will revert to the continuing full-time position of position title with home council at the end of the secondment period.

During the period of secondment, secondee will be required to comply with all applicable statutes, regulations policies, and procedures of the seconding council.

5. Payment Arrangements

Two options are available for managing the payroll administration of the seconded employee.

Delete the option, either (a) or (b) that is not applicable:

- (a) Responsibility will remain with the home council for payroll administration of secondee at the rate approved for the seconding position. A recoup process will be administered by the home council invoicing the seconding council for salary and on-costs on a period of time basis.

Invoices should be directed to: title, section, seconding council.

OR

(b) Responsibility for all payroll administration will transfer to the seconding council during the secondment period.

Secondment at a higher level than the secondee's substantive classification will attract the remuneration and conditions applicable to the higher-level position. These higher payments will cease when the employee completes the secondment and returns to his/her substantive position or level.

Any changes to base salary or other costs will be subject to renegotiation.

During the period of secondment, the employee will remain an employee of the home council and will therefore be accorded the same rights. In the event of any communication or consultation regarding home council issues e.g., organisational restructuring, the seconded employee will be included as part of the process. The seconded employee will also be considered for any vacant positions as if they were working in the council at the time.

Secondees will remain a member of his/her current superannuation scheme as per the conditions of his/her employment with the home council.

6. Annual Leave and Sick Leave

Secondees will be eligible for his/her normal entitlements to annual leave and sick leave as specified by the conditions of home council.

Home council will advise seconding council of any accrued leave entitlements which secondees have access to at the time of commencement of the secondment. Seconding council must notify the home council of the taking of any annual leave or sick leave during the secondment.

The approval and timing of annual leave is to be determined by the seconding council in consultation with secondees. Home council will be consulted only in the case of long service leave.

There will be a full reconciliation of leave entitlements at the completion of the secondment. The payment of leave entitlements will be subject to the payment of salary method elected by the two councils.

Where option (a) has been selected, seconding council will notify home council of any leave taken prior to the pay run for the period to which the leave applies. Seconding council processes payroll insert frequency, with the first pay cycle after the commencement of the secondment being insert date. Home council will process the leave accordingly. At the completion of the secondment, seconding council will pay to home council, the balance of any leave liabilities accrued during the secondment period.

Where option (b) has been selected, seconding council will process any leave as taken during the secondment. At the completion of the secondment, seconding council will notify home council of the balance of leave and will transfer any leave liabilities accrued during the secondment period to home council.

7. Long Service Leave

Seconded will continue to accrue long service leave in accordance with the conditions of the home council.

[Insert one of the options below:]

If secondee is eligible but no long service leave is to be taken insert this clause below and delete all other clauses:

No long service leave is to be taken by [secondee] during the period of the secondment.

Or, if long service leave is to be taken insert either clause (a) or (b) and delete the other clause:

- (a) [Seconding council] will approve the taking of long service leave on [insert date] until [insert date].

OR

- (b) The [seconding council] will approve the taking of long service leave for a period of [insert weeks]. The final timing and duration of such leave will be negotiated between [secondee] and the [seconding council].

8. Premature Termination of Contract

This secondment agreement may only be terminated by agreement in writing by seconding council and home council after prior consultation between seconding council and home council.

The seconding council may terminate the secondment on account of inappropriate behaviour of a serious nature or may terminate with two weeks' notice in the event of non-performance or a decision to no longer support the secondment.

If secondee wishes to terminate his/her employment with home council during the period of this secondment, he/she must give at least insert notice period notice to seconding council and home council.

9. Extension

Extensions beyond the initial secondment period will be subject to the further approval of both home council, the seconding council and the secondee. There is no implied obligation on any party to accept an extension of agreement.

10. Intellectual Property and Confidentiality

Material created by the secondee during the secondment period will be owned by the seconding council.

The secondee will keep confidential all information of the seconding council.

In this clause:

“Material” includes property, information, and the subject matter of any category of Intellectual Property rights.
